Federal Acquisition Regulation; Officials Not to Benefit (Ethics)

AGENCIES: Department of Defense (DOD), General Services Administration (GSA), and National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule is issued pursuant to the Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act of 1994, Public Law 103–355 (the Act). The Federal Acquisition Regulatory Council is amending the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) as a result of changes to 41 U.S.C. 22 by Section 6004 of the Act. This regulatory action was subject to Office of Management and Budget review under Executive Order 12866, dated September 30, 1993.

EFFECTIVE DATE: September 19, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Julius Rothlein, Ethics Team Leader, at (703) 697–4349 in reference to this FAR case. For general information, contact the FAR Secretariat, Room 4037, GS Building, Washington, DC 20405 (202) 501–4755. Please cite FAC 90–30, FAR case 94–802.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

The Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act (FASA) of 1994, Pub. L. 103–355, provides authorities that streamline the acquisition process and minimize burdensome Government-unique requirements. Major changes in the acquisition process as a result of Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act implementation include changes in the areas of Commercial Item Acquisition, Simplified Acquisition Procedures, the Truth in Negotiations Act, and introduction of the Federal Acquisition Computer Network (FACNET).

FAR Case 94–802 originated because Section 6004 of Public Law 103–355 amended 41 U.S.C. 22 by repealing the requirement that “every contract or agreement” shall express the condition that certain officials shall not benefit from the award of that contract or agreement. The Government has expressed that condition in the form of FAR clause 52.203–1. Since there is no longer a statutory requirement to include such a clause in Government contracts, the clause has been deleted. In addition, in response to a public comment, the statements of policy found at FAR 3.102 through 3.102–2 have been deleted. The criminal provisions found at 18 U.S.C. 431 and 432 remain in effect.

B. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Department of Defense, the General Services Administration, and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration certify that this final rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., because the underlying policy, that certain officials shall not benefit from the award of Government contracts, has not changed.

C. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply because the changes to the FAR do not impose recordkeeping or information collection requirements, or collections of information from offerors, contractors, or members of the public which require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under 44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.

D. Public Comments

Two substantive comments were received from six commenters in response to the proposed rule published in the Federal Register on December 1, 1994 (59 FR 61738). The Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act

Implementation Team fully considered these comments. The team’s analysis and disposition of the comments may be obtained from the FAR Secretariat.

Federal Acquisition Regulation; Procurement Integrity (Ethics)

AGENCIES: Department of Defense (DOD), General Services Administration (GSA), and National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule is issued pursuant to the Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act of 1994, Public Law 103-355 (the Act). The Federal Acquisition Regulatory Council (FAR Council) is implementing Section 8301(e) of the Act by excluding procurement of commercial items from certain certification requirements. This regulatory action was subject to Office of Management and Budget review under Executive Order 12866, dated September 30, 1993.

EFFECTIVE DATE: September 19, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Julius Rothlein, Ethics Team Leader, at (703) 697-4349 in reference to this FAR case. For general information, contact the FAR Secretariat, Room 4037, GS Building, Washington, DC 20405 (202) 501-4755. Please cite FAC 90-30, FAR case 94-804.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

The Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act of 1994, Pub. L. 103-355, provides authorities that streamline the acquisition process and minimize burdensome Government-unique requirements. Major changes in the acquisition process as a result of Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act implementation include changes in the areas of Commercial Item Acquisition, Simplified Acquisition Procedures, the Truth in Negotiations Act, and introduction of the Federal Acquisition Computer Network (FACNET). FAR case 94-804 originated because Section 8301(e) excludes procurements of commercial items from the certification requirement of the Procurement Integrity Act which requires that contractor employees certify that they are familiar with the Act, and that they will report violations of the Act.

B. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The changes may have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601 et seq., because the elimination of the certification for commercial items will have a beneficial impact on small entities by reducing the paperwork burden. A Final Regulatory Flexibility Analysis (FRFA) has been prepared and will be provided to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy for the Small Business Administration. A copy of the FRFA may be obtained from the FAR Secretariat.

C. Paperwork Reduction Act

The final changes do not impose increased record keeping or information collection requirements on members of the public under the Paperwork Reduction Act which would require the approval of OMB under 44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq. This final rule reduces paperwork burden by excluding commercial products from certain certification requirements of the Procurement Integrity Act. A correction reflecting the reduction in paperwork burden was approved by OMB on November 30, 1994, under Control No. 9000-0103.

D. Public Comments

Fourteen substantive comments were received from 11 commenters in response to the proposed rule published in the Federal Register on December 1, 1994 (59 FR 61740). The Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act Implementation Team fully considered all comments received. The team's analysis and disposition of the comments may be obtained from the FAR Secretariat.
